

Irene Romero Nieto
Academic Coordinator
El Árbol Green School

Irene studied Educational Psychology at Universidad Pedagógica Nacional in Mexico and has held numerous positions in the educational field throughout her professional journey, from being a preschool Spanish teacher to presenting an Education Seminar at Universidad de la Serena in Chile.

Her professional experience also includes working as Academic Coordinator and Preschool Director, and spearheading two different educational projects, one in Mexico City and the other one in Playa del Carmen.

She is a key part of the educational community of El Árbol, where she is always willing to lend a helping hand.