

Alejandra “Alex” García
Online English Teacher
El Árbol Green School

Miss Alex has more than 20 years of experience working with kids of all ages. She has a college degree in Architecture, and is certified as a Camping Counselor and English-language Specialist.

A summer camp lover since her early childhood, she started working with children at camps as a teenager and throughout her college years while studying Architecture at Universidad Iberoamericana, Campus Laguna.

After receiving her Counsellor in Training (CIT) Trainers Certification and working as an English teacher at a summer camp in Kerrville, Texas, she decided to set architecture aside and dedicate herself 100 percent to become a Camp Director and English-language specialist. She went on to pursue a certification by the American Camping Association and to complete the Adventure Based Counseling Courses, and began her official summer camp career working at some of the most renowned camps in Mexico.

Her professional experience in this field covers working as School Camps Program Coordinator for Camp Pipiol, and as Co-Director of Camp Counselors USA's international program where she assisted, trained and supervised teenagers and young adults attending U.S. camps as Counselors and Counselors in Training. Alex also worked as Co-Director and English teacher at Global Language Villages (GLV) camps, creating full-language immersion experiences for children of different ages.

After serving as a substitute teacher from kindergarten to sixth grade, she now joins El Árbol Green School as English teacher for the school's Online program.

Alex is originally from Mexico City but grew up in Torreon, Coahuila, in Northern Mexico.
